(By Special Telegraph.)

WINNIPEG, Feb. 29.—J. H. McTavish, C. P. R. Land Commissioner, has resigned. The vacancy will be filled by Mr. L. A. Hamilton, assistant Commissioner.

At the Liberal convention held at Birtle on Monday, L. M. Jones, of Winnipeg, was chosen as secretary for the constituency of St. Louis Lake. He will probably be opposed.

The engineers and firemen on the C. B. & Q. Railway are out on strike.

The steamboat Julia, on leaving South Valley, California, this morning, was blown up and burnt to the water's edge. There were about thirty killed and a great number wounded.

The latest bulletin from San Remo says the Crown Prince is growing weaker. From three to five months is the longest he can live as a new growth has been discovered under the original one, and so located that it would be impossible for him to survive an operation.

The reports that Dr. Harrison intended to resign his seat for West Minnesota have been denied by him.

The plans for the Battle river bridge, at Battleford, are about completed and tenders will soon be asked for the construction.

WINNIPEG, Feb. 27.—The Rev. James Fick of Montreal, has refused the call to the Knox Church, Winnipeg.

The democratic convention for the nomination of a Presidential candidate is to be held at St. Louis on 5th June.

The official bulletin from San Remo this morning, states that the rest of the Crown Prince was disturbed during the night by coughing. The death of Prince Louis of Baden, his nephew, has had a depressing effect upon the Prince.

LONDON, Feb. 29.—The election to fill the vacant seat for Deppford, in the Commons, resulted in the return of Darling, Conservative. The election was very intense and not so unimportant.

Rumors are rife that the Crown Prince is rapidly growing worse.

Lord Churchill last night, in his address before the Oxford union, said that if he were asked if home rule would ever be granted to Ireland, he would answer yes, but that he could not say when. This would happen when England ceased to be a nation of wealth, when her manufactures and commerce had departed, when her merchants no longer contributed to the trade of Europe, and when the memory of the past was forgotten, and then only—would home rule be granted.

TOWN COUNCIL.

An adjourned meeting of the council was held on Monday evening last. His Worship Mayor Bain occupied the chair and all the members were present except Councillor Davis.

COMMUNICATIONS.

LCM. COT. Spont presented a petition from the Board of Trade asking the Council to appoint as Mayor MacArthur as one of the delegates to Ottawa, and a similar petition was presented by Mr. MacArthur, from the Local Agricultural Society, asking that Capt. Craig be a delegate.

BY LAWS.

COUN. JOHNSON introduced a by-law to appoint delegates to Ottawa to present petitions re Representation and Railway Communication, and to provide for expenses of said delegation. This by-law was put through its various stages and passed.

The delegates appointed were His Worship the Mayor, as Mayor MacArthur and Capt. Craig.

The amount appropriated to defray the expenses of the delegation was $200, such being the amount voted.

Wignome motioned to appoint a clerk of the delegation and was successful.

CHIT-CHAT LOCALS.

Gathered by our Reporter.

Read Wignome's advertisement.
The delegates who have been appointed to go to Ottawa are: Mayor Bain, Mayor MacArthur and Capt. Craig.

The weather for a few days this week was very windy, causing a blockade of the roads and making travelling unpleasant.

We are sorry to hear that Mr. Ch. Mair has been laid up for some time with erysipelas. He is now able to be about again.

The Public School Board have been very fortunate in securing the delivery of their supply of wood for this year at so low a rate as $1 90 per cord, including dues, etc.

In this issue will be seen an advertisement asking for tenders for flour for the Indian department. Mr. R. C. McKenzie, Duck Lake, will receive the tenders for this district.

We have received a copy of the Scientific American which is a valuable paper to no chance as it gives all the latest inventions and patents made public. See advertisement in another column.

We received by this mail sample copies from Munro's Library, New York, of the latest seasonal writer, H. Ryder Haggard. The books are well printed, compactly and serviceably bound and very cheap.

The tax collector has given in his book for last year. He deserves great credit for his indomitable perseverance in hunting up slow payers, as he shows a clean sheet that has been presented to the town before.

Mr. John M. Niven met with a very serious accident on Monday last, stepping off the side walk at MacArthur & Knowles' corner he slipped and broke one of his legs near the ankle. He was taken to the Queen's hotel where his wife was and is now progressing favorably.

The Toronto World is now the leading paper of that city. It presents the latest news with impartiality. Its motto is "Canada for the Canadians," and waging war against all who would wade differently. Our readers should send a copy of the paper daily.

At a meeting of the council of the Saskatchewan Rifle Association on Wednesday evening last, the several committees were struck. The range committee was to work immediately and see what can be done towards preparing the range for use this summer.

His Honor the Lieut. Governor has granted the liberal sum of $1,000 for the opening of the roads to Green and Ryder lakes. The petition asking for the grant was presented on member, M. Hughes, only on the 15th February and Mr. Dewdney with his usual promptness wired the grant on the 27th.

The death is announced, at Deloraine, Manitoba, of Mrs. Annie Farewell, who will be remembered by many of the old residents as the widow of the late Samuel McKenzie, a retired officer in the B. C. 48th regiment, and one of the original settlers here, having built the store now occupied by Stobart & Co. and taken in the claim known as the McKenzie estate.

The Irish Protestants should not be backward in forming themselves into a society similar to other nationalities, for benevolent purposes and to commemorate the patron saint of the Emerald Isle.

The Irish Protestant Benevolent Society stands second to none in all cities and towns southeast of this and we would like to see a branch of the association here.

The council have named out of the building owned by Scott Hughes and known as the "Club" house. They have a much larger and more comfortable chamber and it is to be hoped they will fill up as becomes a Council Chamber, with a suitable club for the mayor, chairmen and tables for the councilmen, clerk and other office work and seats for the public.

Great bargains to be had at Wignome's getting clearing away.

Dominion Parliament.

OTTAWA, Feb. 27.—The Speaker took the chair at 10 o'clock, after which Mr. Fontaine, Haldimand, rose to move the address in reply to the speech from the throne. He referred to Lord Lansdowne's approaching removal, and expressed the regret the people of Canada would feel in whose affections Lord Lansdowne held a warm place. The speech from the throne might be criticised by the Opposition Speaker and the press as brief and not suggesting much legislation, but this was a matter of congratulation, showing that the affairs of the country were in such a good shape that no legislation was necessary. He spoke of the changes to be made in the Northwest Government similar to that in the other Provinces, and spoke of the prosperity of the country, and said that all it wants is increased immigration.

Mr. Jones seconded the motion, speaking twenty minutes in French.

Mr. Laurier replied. He congratulated the mover and seconded the address on the excellency of their speeches, but expressed doubts as to the Government carrying out the promises of the speech, and wanted to know why the Department of Trade and Commerce—about which so much was said last session—had not been established. He also attacked the Government for not carrying out their intention of appointing a solicitor general. He would like to see amendments made to the Excise Act, and maintained that the franchise should be left to the Provincial Governments to regulate. He marvelled at the tenacity with which the Ministerialists clung to this country and its propositions. He mentioned the opposite, and said the country was never in a worse condition than at present, that it was on the verge of ruin, and hundreds and thousands of our people were leaving and seeking homes in the United States, and all this was due to the action of the Government, who fostered monopolies. The C. P. R. was one of these and held Manitoba in its grasp. With all its magnificent crops, Manitoba could not advance so long as held down by this monopoly and controlled by a few men who had made its subject matter, but intended offering no amendments to the address.

Sir John replied, after he congratulated Mr. Laurier on his position as leader, joined in the regret expressed by the leader of the Opposition on the absence of Mr. Blake, and also regretted the departure of Lord Lansdowne. He remarked the inconsistency of Mr. Laurier in his remarks on the appointment of a Board of Trade and Commerce, and a Solicitor General. The House of Commons and the Government had not been established with His Excellency has not yet considered it necessary to proclaim the act. The Ministry are perfectly satisfied with the existing condition of affairs, if immigration had not flowed in to the country as freely as it might, the blame rested upon the Opposition, whose denials had kept people out. Every day while Parliament was in session had been marked by the keel from the opposition as to the terrible condition of the country, and its depressing effect upon the people, yet the people of Canada persistently failed to see it and continued to support this party which so persistently continued to ruin it. The people evidently preferred ruin at the hands of the party now in power to prosperity at the hands of the party in opposition.

Sir Richard Cartwright followed, and in extravagant language, spoke of the exodus and depression; he brought up the Winnipeg Board of Trade resolutions and stated that tens of thousands of bushels of wheat were lying rotting in the streets of Manitoba towns, which statement was promptly denied by Mr. Duff.

Peter Mitchell spoke about ten minutes and the debate closed. The address was then adopted.

Mrs. Macdonell and South gave a dinner this evening to the Government and the Opposition, and the Government and British Columbia members. The Hon. Time, Waite and Lord Aberdeen Duff were among the guests.

OTTAWA, Feb. 27.—Sir Charles Tupper made his first appearance in the House this afternoon, since his reelection. He was introduced by Sir John and the Hon. Mr. Thompson.

Daily of St. John's presented a petition for an amendment to the act respecting the Great Northern and Central Railway.

OTTAWA, Feb. 28.—The Speaker took the chair at 10 o'clock today.

Gen. Laurier was introduced by Sir John and Sir Charles Tupper.

McKay, of Hamilton, presented a lot of petitions from parties in Hamilton on the labor question; also one that all exemptions from taxes be abolished; and one for manhood suffrage.

Sir John presented a report from the committee to strike the Standing Committee.

Mr. Laurier rose to a question of privilege regarding the dismissal of Tremblay and other translators of debates. He contended that the Speaker had exceeded his authority and invaded the privileges of the House in dismissing these men. He asked the Speaker to submit the papers, etc. in the case, to the House.

Sir John said there was no doubt but that the Speaker would comply with the request.

After other discussions the House adjourned at 10 o'clock.

A Liberal caucus was held to-day at which the question of leadership was discussed. There was a decided disorganization in the Liberal ranks; some looking to Cartwright and others to Laurier. The leadership is likely to remain with Laurier for a time yet.

The Hon. Richard Hardisty was introduced in the Senate on Friday by Messrs. Abbott and Smith, and took his seat.

Toronto, Feb. 28.—Robert Neil, who introduced his grand, John Rindge, in the Central Prison a few months ago, was hanged this morning at 9:30 o'clock.

The Boardman of Leominster Freeman and Engineers on the C. B. & Q. railway are still on strike. About half the regular cars are running.

Mr. Robertson, J. P., of West Hastings, died this morning at his residence in Toronto.

Sir John and Sir Hector Langevin moved that the reports of Judge O'Brien on the recent visit be referred to the Committee on Privileges and Elections, to order that one of the House may issue for a new election.

After several other petitions had been laid on the table, the House adjourned. OTTAWA, Feb. 29.—In the Commons today, Mr. South presented a petition from the M. & N. W. railway for amendments to their charter.

Mr. Macdonell expects to have a speedy issue of the balance of the report, by the Prince Albert volunteers.

QU'APPELLE, March 2.—Ratton, the Indian Hunt tax collector, has paid over $500, but his suit insists he was robbed. He is still under arrest.
